What we offer, why and when

QUIMERA AGENCY

Our system to hold both the complexity and the coherent nature of good communication

Services Architecture

DEFINE

FIRST LAYER — DEFINE

What gets built before visibility scales.

The layer that shapes interpretation before the market defines it for you.

Narrative & Positioning Strategy

We define how the company, its leadership and its ambitions should be interpreted and build the communication architecture capable of sustaining that interpretation over time.

INCLUDES

- Corporate narrative understanding
- Positioning strategy
- Messaging architecture
- Executive positioning
- Market localization & narrative adaptation
- Communication criteria & exposure frameworks
- Guidance around sensitive topics
- Internal communication alignment
- Strategic narrative systems

DIFFERENTIAL

- Translation of complexity into public legibility
- Data-led thought leadership
- Narrative systems designed for long-term reputational compounding
- Alignment between capital, product, leadership and public perception

ACTIVATE

SECOND LAYER — ACTIVATE

What we proactively communicate.

Strategic visibility with direction, timing and criteria.

Media & Strategic Presence

We activate visibility selectively through media, public positioning and strategic participation. Ensuring direction in every decision. Even when it is to not participate.

 ACTIVATE

INCLUDES

- Strategic media relations
- Press releases and strategic announcements
- Launch, fundraising and partnership communications
- Executive communications support
- Interview, podcast and panel preparation
- Speaking opportunity advisory and management
- Stakeholder and media relationship management
- Research and insight amplification
- Strategic visibility guidance

DIFFERENTIAL

- Visibility calibrated around strategic timing
- Selective rather than volume-driven media logic
- Positioning before amplification
- Reputation-aware exposure management
- Not everything has to be public, but relationships must be built.

 SUSTAIN

THIRD LAYER — SUSTAIN

What preserves coherence as visibility, scrutiny and complexity increase.

Strategic guidance for maintaining trust, clarity and reputational consistency over time.

Reputation & Strategic Advisory

We help organizations navigate growth, visibility and sensitive moments without losing narrative coherence, institutional trust or strategic positioning.

INCLUDES

- Ongoing strategic communications counsel
- Reputational risk assessment
- Sensitive communications advisory
- Vulnerability identification
- Narrative coordination during high-attention moments
- Strategic response guidance
- Executive counsel during complex situations
- Review of external communications and public positioning

DIFFERENTIAL

- Reputation viewed as long-term strategic infrastructure
- Narrative continuity across periods of growth and pressure

SUSTAIN

- Integration between communications, leadership and perception management
- Strategic interpretation beyond reactive communications
